Assignment no 3:

You are required to create an SRS (Software Requirement Specification) document for a banking system case study. Steps for creating SRS,

- After capturing functional requirements through user-story cards, state non-functional requirements as well for a banking system.
- User Stories card would help you to capture use-cases. Identify actors from story cards and draw use-cases for a banking system case study.